

The Independent Helpline for Special Educational Needs

Small-group, one-day workshops

FROM STATEMENT TO SEN TRIBUNAL

- This is a practical foundation workshop using case examples, and is designed for parents wanting to know how to start to fight effectively to make sure their children's needs are met.
- Participants are invited to bring along any papers relating to their children's needs, as there will be ample time for questions and discussion.
- Places are limited to a maximum of six participants because of the interactive nature of the workshop.
- During the course of the year we also offer to tackle particular topics in greater detail, such as appealing a statement or appealing after an annual review.
